GIBSON TALKS ON CONTEMPORARY
ISSUES: NOVEMBER 20, 2024

Invitation to the 5th in this series of 5 talks.

Topic: Dr Megan Pōtiki will discuss Māori language loss at Ōtākou and how colonisation impacted heavily on that. This topic is intertwined with past Māori history and whakapapa and European history in the wider Otago area.

Speaker: Dr Megan Pōtiki, CEO Otago Polytech

When: Wednesday 20 November 2024 at 7pm

Where: Mornington Methodist Church, cnr Whitby and Galloway Streets.

Entry: $5 or other koha.

Please leave the car spaces adjacent to the Church for disabled people.

Methodist Mission Southern Director, Laura Black, is honoured to have been appointed to a three-year term as the Social Services Commissioner for the NZ UNESCO Commission. UNESCO is the United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organisation, and works to promote international cooperation in education, arts, sciences and culture. Laura will be one of 7 on the Commission Board and is interested in the Management of Social Transformation, Climate Change, Global AI Ethics Observatory, Inclusive Policy Lab, and Futures Literacy workstreams. We're sure there'll be more information to come! This position is in addition to her role as Director of Methodist Mission Southern.
